Huskies in the News

"Blake Wilson 1000th point presentation"

Blake Wilson scored his 1000th point in basketball versus Burns High School.

While the final regular season game will be this Friday against Ashbrook, stay tuned to the website for the playoff schedule.

"Hunter Huss @ 3A Regional Swim Meet"

At the Western 3A Regionals, Senior Matt Fender qualified for States for the fourth straight year, placing eighth in the 200-yard freestyle and 100-yard Butterfly, posting his personal bests for this season. Our relays, dropping a total of six seconds, placed 23rd and 18th.

"Going to Work"

Congratulations to Alex Sanders as he was chosen for an internship with A&E in Gastonia. Alex will report to work during 4th period every day earning a credit and a paycheck for spring semester.

"Mars Hill Choral Auditions"

Congratulations to the following chorus students for being chosen to participate in the 2018 Mars Hill University Choral Festival. They are Kameron Headley, Maleek Wright and Cierra Davis. This is Cierra's second year being chosen for this event.
