Early Release & Registration

Thursday March 8th will be an early release day. Students will be dismissed at 12:00. That afternoon teachers are available to meet with parents to pick up report cards & discuss your progress. At 6:00, there will be a registration meeting where you and your parents can register online for your 2018-2019 classes. Refreshments will be provided by FCCLA & teachers will have displays on D-Hall if you have a question or are interested in a class for next year. Don't miss this event! Bring a parent!

New Academic and Attendance Incentive Program

We are excited to announce a new incentive program that will recognize student success in academics and attendance. Students with a cumulative GPA of 2.75 or higher and no more than 5 absences in any first semester class are eligible to participate and receive rewards. Participation in the program is reviewed each semester. Monthly attendance drawings will be held for students with perfect attendance during the previous month. Make your mark by being at school every day and doing your best in all classes!

Finalist for PAEMST

Congratulations to Ms. Ellis who is a finalist for the Presidential Awards for Excellence in Mathematics and Science Teaching (PAEMST) program. Ms. Ellis and two other individuals are competing for this honor. If chosen, she will fly to Washington for the awards ceremony. Stop by and congratulate Ms. Ellis on her outstanding accomplishments.

Jr. Chef's Competition

Elexis Jones, Sandra Cortez Reyes, Cassidy Rodriguez are finalist for the Jr. Chef's Competition with a Chicken Alfredo Pizza. They will compete April 9th at Guilford Community College in a "Chopped" style event. NCJCC will recognize students for their ability to work as members of a team to demonstrate valuable skills in recipe development, food preparation, marketing, public presentation, organization, and local food systems. Recipe had to include 2 local foods and a cost analysis. The NCJCC consists of two parts: 1) recipe contest and 2) cook-off. During the NCJCC cook-off, finalist teams must prepare, cook and plate their recipe and present 2 plates of their prepared recipe to judges. Congratulations to Ms. Hester and her "team". Good luck on April 9th.
