

TAX EXEMPT LETTER

To Whom It May Concern:

The Gaston County School District was created by an act of the North Carolina Assembly and, as such, is considered a subdivision of the State Government. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) considers public school districts to be a tax-exempt organization. Please refer to IRS Publication 526 for additional details.

Sincerely,

Gary F. Hoskins
Chief Financial Officer
Gaston County Schools