Our Mission

Gaston Early College will prepare students to learn for college and career, lead by example, and live a successful life in today's society.

Our Vision

Gaston Early College will provide students with dynamic learning experiences in a college setting, a staff who cares for and supports each student, rigorous academic expectations, and opportunities for personal and community growth.

School Description

Gaston Early College High School (GECHS) is an exciting innovative high school located on the Gaston College campus in Dallas, N.C. The Early College High School is operated by Gaston County Schools and Gaston College through a joint partnership. This exclusive, non-traditional high school offers Gaston County students a unique opportunity to receive a high school diploma while earning an Associate in Arts, Associate in Science, or Associate in Engineering degree from Gaston College. Started in 2008 at Bessemer City High School, GECHS moved to its current location in August of 2012.

31.97% of students attending Gaston Early College High School qualify for free and reduced lunch (This percentage is from the 2019-2020 school year).

Around 70% of students attending Gaston Early College High School are considered first-generation college students (parent has not graduated with a bachelor's degree)

School Honors and Recognitions

- Grade A School (2015-2019) five years in a row.
- Grade A School for 2021-2022 school year
- Ranked the #2 school in the Charlotte-Metro Area by the Charlotte Business Journal (2018)
- Rated a Bronze Medal School by US News' Best High Schools Report (2018)
- 100% graduation rate for 2020-2021 & 2021-2022 school year

Entrance Criteria

Students apply to attend Gaston Early College during their eighth-grade year. A lottery is held to select 54 students based on first-generation status and feeder high school area. Around 70% of students chosen in the lottery self-report they are first-generation college students. A percentage of students are accepted from each of the high school feeder areas in Gaston County, according to enrollment, which fairly distributes the GECHS experience to all areas of our community.

The following entrance criteria are in effect for students entering through the 2022 school year.

The Entrance Criteria are: Level III, IV or V on the 7th & 8th grade end-of-grade test in reading.
Level II, III, IV or V on the 7th and 8th grade end-of-grade test in math.
94% attendance rate in grades 7 and 8.
Be in good standing regarding conduct.
Be a Gaston County resident.

Curriculum

The academic program is organized on a block schedule. The majority of our students are enrolled in 8-10 classes per year. Students must earn 28 credits in order to graduate from high school.

Gaston Early College offers 15 Honors courses: English I, English II, Math I, Math II, Math III, Biology, Earth Science, Chemistry, Physics, Anatomy and Physiology, Forensic Science, World History, Civics and Economics, American History, and Spanish III. Spanish IV Honors is available through Gaston Online, where students can take high school courses online taught by a Gaston County Schools teacher.

Gaston Early College does not offer Advanced Placement classes due to the nature of the program. Students take 21 or more courses at Gaston College in order to meet the requirements for an Associate degree. Due to the nature of the program, the curriculum is spread out over five years. In the 2019-2020 school year GECHS graduated the first group of students to complete the program in four years. I
