Bringing Science and Food to Life

On Monday, January 29th Webb Street School held a ribbon cutting ceremony deducing the Aquaponics greenhouse thanks to The Carrie E. and Lena V. Glenn Foundation. The students at Webb were busy at work harvesting 20 lb. of lettuce and showing the visitors how the system works and how they have been able maintain it.

Gaston County Schools, Laura Lineberger of the Glenn Foundation, Sam Fleming of 100 Gardens, and representatives from Rivermen Brewing Company.

Present for this special event were Mr. Booker, Superintendent of

The Art of Fashion 'An Enchanted Evening'

Order your tickets online for the best show in town! Use the Signup Genius link to reserve your tickets for the show on Saturday, March 3, 2018. Pay online or at school after reserving your tickets.

Composting

Transition students had the opportunity to learn how to compost with Erin Lineberger, Environmental Educator from Gaston Natural Resources Department. The students learned what can go in to compost (brown matter and green matter), the ratio and they need FBI (Fungus, Bacteria, and Insects) for the compost to be viable. After all that sorting of what can go in to the compost they headed outside to the school garden and started composting so we can have nutrient rich soil for our garden.

coming out and supporting our school.

PTO Corner

This years fashion show is going to be bigger and better than ever before! We have 60 students participating and over 10 designers from Charlotte and New York. If you have not reserved your tickets yet do it soon since they are selling fast.

There will be a letter going home soon with instructions for the student models. We are asking parents to drop their student model off at 4:00pm and not plan on staying or going back stage as we are going to have plenty of volunteers working the show and caring for them. We want you to come enjoy the show and watch your child shine! If you have any questions please contact the PTO or the school office.

York Chester Jazz Band will perform at school on Friday, 2/23 at 1 pm

FUN AT WEBB

Congratulations to Maggie Jo Hass for winning the PTO staff perfect attendance gift card in December, and congratulations to Mitchell Yeomans for winning January.

NC Beautiful

Congratulations to Ms. Tileston and the transition team for being awarded a grant from NC Beautiful for new raised beds in the garden. We enjoyed having Mr. Steve Vacendack at school to present us with the grant. Thank you Mr. Booker and Dr. Mattox for
