

WORD AROUND THE WEBB

Webb Street Weekly Newsletter

Staff Spotlight-Kelli Howe

In this issue:

- Staff Spotlight
- Upcoming field trips
- School activities
- Special Olympics

Ms. Howe is our new Principal at Webb Street! She previously served as an Assistant Principal at Ashbrook High School for eight years and also as an English Teacher at various Gaston County Schools for ten years. Ms. Howe graduated from Bessemer City High School and attended Western Carolina University and Gardner-Webb University. She is married and has a son and a daughter. She is proud to be a part of the Webb Street family!

School Activities

Our annual basketball game with the Gaston County Sheriff's Department is this Friday. The students are very excited and are hoping for another win!

Monday and Tuesday, the students will enjoy programs presented by The National Theater for Children. The programs, "The Treasure Trove of Conservation Cove" and "The Resource Raiders", will show our students examples of conserving and recycling and were sponsored by Duke Energy.

Field Trips

Our Seniors will visit the Life Enrichment Center in Kings Mountain on Wednesday. Ms. Tate-Williams' class will enjoy a tour of Ingles Grocery store. Other students will visit the bowling alley, Eastridge Mall, Target, and the Habitat for

"Gratitude can transform common days into thanksgivings, turn routine jobs into joy, and change ordinary opportunities into blessings."

-William Arthur Ward

Special Olympics

The Spring Special Olympic Games are May 1, 2015 at North Gaston High School. The deadline for physicals is April 14th and Special Olympics will not accept any after this date. Please send all physicals to school as soon as possible.

WOW (Webb of Wonderful)

Remember an Attitude of Gratitude goes a great distance! As the end of the month is drawing near, please submit your WOW cards! Expressing appreciation when people go above and beyond is important to our school culture! These cards will be taken into consideration for Teacher/Instructional Assistant of the Month.

