This is Erin's first year teaching at Webb Street School. She did her year long student teaching internship last year at Webb Street with Ms. Miller. Webb Street was thrilled to add Erin to our teaching staff this school year as a teacher of elementary students with Autism. She received her bachelor's degree in Special Education General and Adapted Curriculum from UNCC. She is newly married to her husband Zach.

Holidays at the Garden

For seven holiday seasons, Ms. Susie Miller's students have created handmade ornaments for a tree at Daniel Stowe Botanical Gardens. This partnership has given Ms. Miller's students the opportunity to decorate a tree that is displayed throughout the holiday season. This year's ornaments are made of wood slices, jute string, pine cones, and old hymnal sheets as the tree's theme is "A Rustic Christmas."
