

May 6, 2015

WORD AROUND THE WEBB

Webb Street Weekly Newsletter

---

Staff Spotlight–Kathy McEwan

Kathy McEwan has held several positions in her 13 years here at Webb Street School. She has been an Instructional Assistant, Bus Driver, CBVT Assistant, and is currently our Behavior Specialist. Kathy was born in Long Island, New York and also lived in Maryland. She's lived in North Carolina for 16 years. Kathy's been married to her husband, Craig, for sixteen years and they have 3 children and a daughter-in-law. Kathy's hobbies include spending time with her family, gardening, and watching soccer.

In this issue:

- Staff Spotlight
- Field Trips
- WOW Day
- Tijuana Flats
- Torch Run

Field Trips

Today, Ms. Neal's student will enjoy lunch at Dynasty Buffet at Franklin Square. Ms. Donoghue and Ms. Springer's students will visit the bowling alley today. Tomorrow, Mr. Elliott's class will try their luck at the bowling pins.

"See the light in others, and treat them as if that is all you see."

-Dr. Mark Dyer

WOW Day

This Thursday, May 7th, will be our first annual WOW Day for Webb Street School. Our high school students will participate in an on-campus field day with activities including volleyball, corn hole, a craft project, and other fun games.

Tijuana Flats

Carolina Thunder is sponsoring a fundraiser night this Thursday evening at Tijuana Flats restaurant. Webb Street School will receive a percentage from every sale between 6:00-9:00 pm. Tijuana Flats is located at 2272 East Franklin Blvd, near Target. Help us support Carolina Thunder and Webb Street by joining us Thursday evening. Don't forget to invite your friends and family too!

Gaston County Torch Run

Our Seniors will participate in the Gaston County Torch Run this Friday with area Law Enforcement Officers. The Officers will carry the "Flame of Hope" through North Carolina to Raleigh to light the Special Olympics cauldron. Our students will run with the Officers through Gaston County, from Bessemer City to Belmont. North Carolina Law Enforcement Officers participate in this run every year to promote awareness and raise funds for Special Olympics.

