

Word Around the Webb Weekly Newsletter

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Webb Street transition student, Mitch T., was chosen as the Spider of the Month for his team. Mrs. Eula says that Mitch has improved with his table manners this year. Mitch is also doing well at his Community Based Vocational Training at St. Michael's Thrift Store. We are proud of your hard work, Mitch!

TAKE A PEEK AT UNIQUE FAMILY FUN NIGHT

Thanks to all the families who came out to our Webb Street Family Fun Night and Parent Information session. We hope the parents who attended learned more about the Unique Learning Systems our school is implementing this year. If you were not able to attend, we hope you can join us next time! Special thanks to our sponsors for providing dinner for our staff and families: Chick Fil A Belmont, Tyson Foods, Ingles Dallas, Flowers Bakery, State Farm Insurance-Agent Stephen Mitchell, and Debbie Donoghue.

WEBB STREET COFFEE SHOP

Webb Street transition students have been hard at work with the school coffee shop. The Cafe serves hot coffee, tea, and cocoa along with muffins and various sweet treats for $1 per item.

CALENDAR

MARCH 2

Early Release Day

MARCH 21-24

Spring Book Fair

MARCH 25-APRIL 3

Spring Break

Does your child need a physical to be able to participate in Special Olympics? Free Physicals will be provided for student athletes in Gaston County who are in need on March 23rd, 2016! This event is sponsored by Special Olympics North Carolina and will be hosted by Carolina Rehabilitation in Mount Holly! Be on the lookout for more information to come home with your child!

Caitlyn enjoys activating the Smartboard to listen to a Unique story being read to her class. Her teacher, Mrs. Janda, says that Caitlyn loves to listen to the interactive Unique books every day and looks forward to reading time.

<http://www.gaston.k12.nc.us/webbst>

<https://www.facebook.com/WebbStreetSchoolGCS/>